VOL. XXII NO. 128

PADUCAH, KY., FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 29, 1907

TEN CENTS PER WEEK

DAY IS OBSERVED APPROPRIATELY BY HOME PEOPLE

Poor are Well Remembered and Accidents are Conspicuously Absent in Reports From This Section—What They Did.

FOREIGN COLONIES REMEMBER

Quietly for the most part, and more generally than ever before, Thanksgiving was observed in Paducah fittingly yesterday. All industries were silent and business houses, offices, public buildings and schools were closed, and the people were at home in family groups.

A number of the churches had special services either in the morning or the evening, and they were well attended. Lots of people went to the country, some to hunt and others to spend the day with relatives. In the city a large number attended the football game in the afternoon, while the vaudeville and moving picture shows and skating rink enjoyed holiday patronage.

There were no accidents of any seriousness and little drunkenness apparent. The police experienced a quiet day.

Caring for the Poor.

The poor were well remembered, and the calls for help were not unusual yesterday. The Charitable club took care of all applications, and Jap Toner, general secretary, made the rounds the day before, distributing perishable articles of food, which had been donated. He relieved perhaps a dozen families.

The Rev. R. W. Chiles and wife, of the Union Rescue mission, reported that they fed about 50 people and took donations to the county poor farm yesterday, where they held services.

The Salvation Army, although no special appeal was made for contributions, fed about a dozen families. Private charity relieved a large number of the distressed.

In Washington, Nov. 29.—President Roosevelt took advantage of the holiday to fulfill a long-standing desire

She is bedridden now and is waited on constantly by her third husband, to whom she was married when 102. Her dinner was served to her yesterday on china which was a portion of the gifts received at the time of her first marriage in 1810.

CHILDREN DIE

Dallas Ledeker, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Ledeker, died at their home on the Highway road yesterday morning at 8 o'clock from the effects of measles. The funeral will be tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The burial will be at Herzog cemetery.

Wheeler Raper, a 9-week-old child, died at the Home of the Friendless last night. The funeral was held this afternoon at the Home. The burial was in Oak Grove.

TRAIN HOLD-UP IN DEPOT

Cleveland, O., Nov. 30.—Thrusting big revolvers in the faces of a coachload of Erie railroad passengers in the city station, three masked men succeeded in looting one of $50 and in making their escape as a policeman charged the car. Before the chance arrival of a brakeman, who hurriedly withdrew his head when he saw the two gleaming revolvers covering the passengers and spread the alarm, had succeeded in bringing a policeman to the scene, the three had extracted $50 in bills from one passenger and fled with their loot. Patrolman Jirelle firing several shots at them as they sped up the long hill to the Superior viaduct to lose themselves in the crowd.

Grain Market.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—Wheat, 98; corn, 61; oats, 49 1/2.

Jury Chosen and Trial of Caleb Powers on Charge of Murder of Goebel Starts.

Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 29. (Special.)—The first trial of Caleb Powers, for alleged complicity in the murder of William Goebel, in which a Republican was allowed to sit on the jury, started yesterday afternoon, with eight Democrats and four Republicans in the box. One Democrat opposed capital punishment and one voted for Willson. Attorney Williams, for the prosecution, made the opening statement.

The names of the jurors follow: J. W. Renaker, G. B. Shinkle, J. C. Linde, A. B. Jouett, James A. O'Hara, B. S. Franks, E. J. Marshall, E. J.

Race, O. R. Collier, Frank Lee, Thos. Robinson and J. L. Price. The first witness was Civil Engineer Woodson, of Frankfort. He testified as to the direction of the bullet and showed a plat of the capitol grounds. The commonwealth insisted on bringing out the details of the shooting, which the defense admitted, regarding the shot coming from the window of the office of the secretary of state.

Fall French Acquitted.

Beattyville, Ky., Nov. 29. (Special.)—Fulton French was found not guilty of the Marcum murder.

STRINGENCY WAS CAUSE OF PETER ARLUND'S PLIGHT

The warrant, charging Peter Arlund, with obtaining property under false pretenses, was dismissed by Judge Cross this morning, the prosecution failing to show that the draft he gave the Desberger Clothing company in payment for a suit of child's clothing was ever presented to Arlund for payment by the Louisville bank, to which it was sent for collection. A second charge against Arlund, of obtaining money by false pretenses, was continued until Monday to give the prosecution an opportunity to get an official of the bank, on which Arlund gave the check, cashed by Desbergers a few days after the draft was accepted for the clothing, to come to Paducah to testify.

Arlund was much elated over the dismissal of the first charge against him. Arlund claims that the financial panic is the cause of him being down and out at present. He claims to have securities in a Louisville bank that are valued at a large sum but cannot realize on them now. He has received some money since he has been imprisoned.

BRAVE HELLO GIRLS

Butte, Mont., Nov. 29.—Girl telephone operators, who stuck to their post until the exchange building began to burn, told Butte newspapers over the phone early today that Cody, Wyoming, was being destroyed by fire. All the business district had been burned before the wire connections were severed.

A FIEND ASSAULTED WOMAN 91 YEARS OLD

Richmond, Va., Nov. 29.—Mrs. Mary Parry, 91 years old, was criminally assaulted today by a negro, James Booker. It is believed the negro intended to seek her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Smith. Mrs. Smith aroused neighbors, who beat the negro unconscious. Mrs. Parry's condition is critical.

CRUSHED UNDER CAR

Ben Norman, a car repairer, was brought to the Illinois Central hospital today from Fulton, where he sustained the loss of the lower part of his right leg in an accident in the yards yesterday. His wife came with him. Mr. Norman was working under a car, when an engine coupled onto it and started. He tried to get out, but a wheel caught his right leg and crushed it.

THE WEATHER.

THREATENING

Generally fair tonight and Saturday. No decided changes in temperature. Highest temperature yesterday, 43; lowest today, 30.

CRIMINAL COURT WORK OF SHERIFF ABOUT COMPLETE

Final preparations for the December criminal term of the McCracken circuit court are being made by Sheriff Ogilvie and his force of deputies today. Though lacking in importance, there is a long docket to be disposed of and a large number of subpoenas have been given the officers to serve.

The final round up of parties indicted on misdemeanor charges is being made today, the sheriff waiting until near the time for court to meet before serving bench warrants for those indicted on unimportant charges. This is always done so that those who are unable to give bond will not be held in jail at public expense several weeks awaiting trial. Two arrests were made this morning. Will Roark and Caro Stroud, both colored, were arrested on two counts for gaming.

The list for jury service has already been summoned.

C. H. Ogilvie was appointed deputy sheriff this morning to assist in waiting on the court during the coming term.

ANOTHER HOBSON

Washington, Nov. 29.—Captain, now Congressman Richard Pierson Hobson, is father of a Thanksgiving day boy. The mother was formerly Miss Hull, of Kentucky.

FLOWERY SPEECH WINS DISMISSAL IN POLICE COURT

One of the "floweriest" speeches that has been delivered in a Paducah court room in some time was heard in police court this morning when, Judge William Henry Randolph, a battle scarred veteran of Norfolk, Va., made a plea for clemency of the court. Judge Randolph was arrested last night by Officers Rousch and Whittemore for being drunk, and when arraigned in court confessed to have lost none of his conversational powers. When called on to make a plea of guilty or not guilty, he arose from the prisoner's bench and made a talk that showed he had really seen better days and was educated. His talk was effective and the fact that the prisoner wore a cross of honor, "won for bravery on Virginia battlefields during the late unpleasantness," as he expressed it, caused the court to be lenient and allow him to go with the promise that he would sin no more.

Jennie Wimberly, colored, was dismissed on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Addie Grim, Leone Grim and Francis Scaggs, colored persons, were held on the charge of petit larceny. They were arrested by Officer Patillo Kirk, of the Illinois Central yards, on a charge of stealing a push cart full of coal from the yards. The Grim woman claimed that she had a family that were sick and suffering from cold. The claim will be investigated.

Allen Pepper was fined $10 and costs on a disorderly conduct charge.

Early Police Court.

On account of the criminal term of circuit court beginning Monday, Judge Cross will convene police court a half hour earlier next week. The change in hours is made on account of the attorneys and officials being interested in cases that are to be tried before the court and to come before the grand jury.

MAYOR-ELECT HAS APPOINTMENT OF CITY TREASURER

Many Requests Being Made That Successor Be Named, Who Will Put Mr. Dorian in as Deputy Until Special Election May Be Held.

THE LAW SEEMS TO BE PLAIN

While there seems to be a general concurrence in the opinion that Section 160 of the constitution, providing that "no fiscal officer of any city of the first or second class after the expiration of the term of office to which he shall have been elected under this constitution, shall be elected to the succeeding term," disqualifies City Treasurer J. J. Dorian from holding office another term, it is generally believed that there will be a vacancy in the office January 1, and that Mayor-elect James P. Smith will appoint some one nominally city treasurer, who will name Mr. Dorian deputy and allow him to draw the salary and conduct the office. There can be no city election next year on account of the congressional election, so the appointee would hold for two years, when Mr. Dorian probably would be eligible as a candidate for the remainder of the term.

Information concerning the disqualification came to light during a study of the laws relating to the succession to the office of city jailer, in which there will be a vacancy January 1, on account of the death of Samuel Beadles, city jailer-elect.

Several officials were disqualified when the city went into the second class, Mayor Yeiser's right being contested and Jesse Gilbert, city attorney, being disqualified, at the time Mayor Yeiser appointed Tom Harrison to fill the vacancy. It seems odd that no one had noticed this provision.

The Law.

Attorney Hal Corbett expressed the off-hand opinion today that there will be a vacancy in the treasurer's office to be filled by the mayor. He stated that he had not made any exhaustive study of the law on the subject, but he cited the following provision in the statutes:

"The term 'vacancy in office,' or any equivalent phrase, under this article, means such as exists when there is an unexpired part of a term of office without a lawful incumbent therein, or when the person elected or appointed to an office fails to qualify according to law, or when there has been no election to fill the office at the time appointed by law. It applies whether the vacancy is occasioned by death, resignation, removal from the state or county or district or otherwise."—Section 1521 Kentucky statutes.

"If the unexpired term will end at the next succeeding annual election at which either city, town, county, district or state officers are to be elected, the office shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the term. If the unexpired term will not end at the next succeeding annual election at which either city, town, county, district or state officers are to be elected, and if three months intervene before said succeeding annual election at which either city, town, county, district or state officers are to be elected, the office shall be filled by appointment until said election and then said vacancy shall be filled by election for the remainder of the term."—Section 1522 Kentucky statutes.

Under the first provision a syllabus in the case of Howes vs. Perry, 92 Ky., 260, says: "One who has not received either a majority or plurality of the votes cast is not entitled to office."

To Appoint Dorian Deputy.

Mayor-elect James P. Smith, when seen today, said:

"It is my opinion, based on pretty good authority, that Capt. William Kraus is not elected by the alleged disqualification of Mr. Dorian. If Mr. Dorian is disqualified, then there will be a vacancy in January, which it will be my duty to fill, until an election can be held. Of course, this thing coming on me so suddenly, I cannot say what I shall do. I shall do whatever seems best and in conformity with the will and desire of the people of Paducah. I don't mind telling you, however, that I have been importuned by a number of people to appoint someone city treasurer, who will name Mr. Dorian his deputy, thus allowing him to remain as a matter of fact in the office until an election, at which time he doubtless would be qualified to run again to fill out the unexpired term."

Mr. Dorian was optimistic. "I haven't had time yet to consult a lawyer about the matter," he said. "I have been busy in my office all

Judge Bugg Sends Sam Crossland and Art Brand to Jail for Three Hours for Contempt of Court.

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Hysterical shrieks of frightened women witnesses, scurrying feet of auditors seeking some place to hide, and indignant raps of Circuit Judge Bugg's gavel, mingled with horrid oaths and vile epithets in the circuit court this morning, when Attorney Sam H. Crossland and Art Brand engaged in an altercation, which promised bloodshed, during the trial of a will contest case. Nothing came of the episode, however, except that both belligerents were locked up in jail until 2 o'clock this afternoon. In the case, which was being tried before a jury, Robbins & Thomas represented one side and Sam H. Crossland and W. J. Webb the other. Crossland got it into his mind that somebody, whom he thought was Art Brand, was discussing the case for the edification of the two end jurors. He complained to the court about Brand's alleged misconduct, whereupon Brand sprang to his feet and called Crossland a liar. Crossland got back with the superlative degree of the same kind of liar and added a few other general remarks touching upon the virtue of Brand's progenitors, and the particular kind of cur he esteemed Mr. Brand himself. This threw the court room into a panic, as everybody expected a personal encounter. Order was restored without any violence and Judge Bugg sent them both to jail for three hours. Crossland complained that he needed a pistol in the jail to protect himself, but Judge Bugg remedied this condition of affairs by specially instructing the sheriff to search both men and lock them up in separate cells.

NEWELL MEMORIAL WILL BE HELD AT BROADWAY CHURCH

A memorial service for the Rev. Thomas J. Newell will be held at the Broadway Methodist church Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. It will be under the direction of Dr. J. W. Blackard, presiding elder of the Paducah district, assisted by the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, pastor of Broadway. The Trimbles Street Methodist church will affiliate and possibly some other churches of the city. Several pastors of other denominations have expressed a desire to be present at the service. Dr. Newell's four years of faithful service as the pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, is deserving of such recognition, and tributes from those for whom he labored, and who labored with him. Dr. Blackard will hold quarterly meeting at Trimbles Street church on Sunday morning and the congregation will come to Broadway at night.

ENGINE HITS CAR

Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 29.—Three women and two men were killed and six other persons injured when a freight engine ran into a street car on a grade crossing this morning. The dead were mangled so that identification will be slow. The motorman escaped by jumping. The gateman, who didn't lower the gates, and the conductor, who signaled for the car to cross, were arrested.

KILLED HIS WIFE BECAUSE HE WAS JEALOUS OF HER

Norman Bacon, colored, of 1014 Allen Row, Mechanicsburg, shot and killed his 22-year-old wife in the woods back of Jones warehouse, this afternoon. He was arrested by Patrolmen Singery and Gourieux and locked up on the charge of murder. Bacon said his wife was running after another man, and he went out in the woods, where she was with several others, and they got into a quarrel. He had the gun and it went off four times. Dr. Carl Sears was summoned, but the woman was past help. She died in the patrol wagon on the way to the police station. The officers met Bacon coming into the city.

Prize Romance of the Season

Cincinnati, Nov. 29.—The prize romance of the year developed here today and put in the shade the near romance of Col. Pine Marshall Hardesty, of Kentucky, who hunted up the original of a whisky label face only to find her in Chicago already married. Harry Huber, a Cincinnati morning, collecting taxes. I was elected and feel that I have received the confidence of the people of Paducah, no matter what technicality may prevent my holding another term."

Another point that may complicate the situation, is that Captain William Kraus, Democratic candidate for city treasurer, has removed from the city and state and has opened a leather establishment in Chattanooga, Tenn.

PENNSYLVANIANS DEFEAT CORNELL BY ROUND SCORE

Surprise in Biggest Game on Thanksgiving on Franklin Field—How Contest Resulted in College Matches Yesterday Afternoon.

GENERAL REVIEW OF SPORTS

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—History repeated itself on Franklin Field this afternoon, Pennsylvania again winning the annual football game with Cornell, the score this year being 12 to 4. It was Pennsylvania's thirteenth victory in fifteen games played with the Ithacans, the New York State team having won one contest and tied another.

The teams were not on the field five minutes before it was seen that Pennsylvania, barring accidents and flukes of the game, was likely to win. She went at Cornell hammer and tongs from the jump, and all during the first half of the game was close to Cornell's goal. Twice Pennsylvania carried the ball over the Cornell line by hard work, only to have the touchdowns disallowed because of holding. Once they lost the ball two feet from the goal on downs, and another time when the ball was only two yards from a score they were again penalized for holding. In this half the Quakers were penalized 75 yards and held Cornell to one first down, Pennsylvania clearly outplayed Cornell in this half and yet, owing to her holding proclivities, was able to make but one touchdown.

Conditions were practically reversed in the second half, although Pennsylvania made another touchdown to a field goal by Cornell. In this half the Ithacans seemed to gain strength and several times endangered Pennsylvania's goal.

Pennsylvania's principal play was the forward pass which she worked almost to perfection. Kelnath was accurate in his throwing and a Pennsylvania man was usually on the spot to receive the ball.

In the second half Cornell did most of the forward passing but the play did not bring the substantial results it did to Pennsylvania.

The Quakers' second touchdown was the result of one of Cornell's forward passes being blocked. The ball was on Pennsylvania's fifty yard line, and Scarlet, for Pennsylvania, intercepted the throw. Draper was on the ball in a flash and with a clear field ran 65 yards for Pennsylvania's score. Cornell's field goal came late in the second half. Cornell got the ball in mid-field and worked it to the twenty three yard line. Unable to make further headway, Caldwell, who had replaced Gardner, dropped back to the thirty-five yard line and kicked a beautiful goal at a difficult angle.

St. Louis Won.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—St. Louis University won over the University of Nebraska in a game which is to decide the championship of the Missouri valley. St. Louis made four touchdowns in the first half and two in the second, tearing through the Nebraska line for great gains. Nebraska's defense proved surprisingly weak when confronted by St. Louis' attack.

SPIRIT AWAY EVIDENCE

New York, Nov. 29.—A midnight raid was made upon the offices of the defunct Borough bank of Brooklyn some time within the last ten days and an important bundle of incriminating documents, checks, ledger leaves and notes—including the Patrick Henry McCarren note for $13,000, was carried off. The work is attributed to former officials of the bank. The disappearance of these records will have the effect of shielding a large group of politicians and others, it is said, whose dealings with the bank had not been taken up.

Parliament Opens.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 29.—The customary ceremonies marked the opening of the Dominion parliament this afternoon. The session promises to be a long and exciting one, as the opposition believes it will be the last before the general election.

MINISTER WHO BAPTIZED

BRADLEY CHILD ON STAND. Washington, Nov. 29.—The Rev. David Utter, pastor of the Unitarian church, of Denver, who officiated at the baptism of the elder Bradley child, Arthur Brown, Jr., appeared for the defense in rebuttal today. He was referred to in Mrs. Bradley's letter as "The priest." He had much to do in a ministerial capacity with Brown and Mrs. Bradley.

HUNT VICTIMS

NUMBER 151 KILLED AND WOUNDED IN THE UNITED STATES.

Seventy People Have Been Killed and 81 Injured Since the Season Opened This Year.

A Chicago paper, which makes a specialty of keeping up with hunting accidents, publishes the following table:

Hunting Accidents of Season.	Killed.	Injured.
Colorado	1	7
Illinois	4	6
Indiana	4	6
Iowa	1	3
Kentucky	1	3
Louisiana	1	3
Michigan	16	19
Minnesota	10	3
Missouri	1	3
Mississippi	1	3
New York	3	1
North Carolina	1	3
North Dakota	2	3
Ohio	1	3
Wisconsin	24	1
Totals	70	81

Seventy persons were killed—most of them by carelessness—during the hunting season of 1907, now about to close. This is slightly below the record for last year, when seventy-

four persons lost their lives in pursuit of game.

The number of injured this year, however, is in excess of that of the season before, eighty hunters having been hurt this year, compared with only seventy during 1906.

In Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota, where most of the accidents to hunters happen, fifty persons lost their lives this year, against thirty-five the year previous. The list of injured in these states this season also exceeds the record of 1906, the number of hunters hurt this year being sixty, against only thirty-two a year ago.

Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. ONE SIDED GAME WITH CAIRO TEAM

Ended in Victory of Culley's By Score of 29 to 0

Few Brilliant Plays Enlivened Slow Exhibition at League Park Yesterday Afternoon.

ATTENDANCE FIVE HUNDRED

Culley's defeated the Alexandria club football team of Cairo by a score of 29 to 0 in a one-sided battle yesterday. Save for a few sensational plays by members of both teams the game was slow. The score was a surprise to almost everyone, as the Cairo team was composed of college men.

Five hundred people witnessed the game at League park yesterday afternoon and Culley colors were everywhere to be seen. Last night Mr. Roy L. Culley was host to the team, making the rounds of the moving picture and vaudeville theaters.

During the game yesterday the ball was in Cairo's territory nearly all the time, except when booted out. The play by halves was:

First half: Sights won the toss-up and took the west goal. Cairo kicked off, Brooks caught the ball and made a 20 yard run. Sights made good gain on the second down.

Keller in a long run made touchdown on delayed pass. Score, 5 to 0. Culley took the east goal; Cairo kicked off, Coburn and St. John made long runs to Cairo's five-yard line. Bower made a touchdown on a line buck. Keller missed goal. Score, 10 to 0.

Culley took west goal. Culley kicked off and lost 15 yards on a forward pass. Cairo punted and gained ten yards. Brooks made long end run. In the second down Sights got the ball and made a 20-yard run for a touchdown. Keller kicked goal. Score, 16 to 0.

Culley took west goal and kicked off, St. John making good gain. Bower was taken out of the game for foul playing and Burton substituted. Coburn tackled the Cairo full back, carrying him over the goal line, making a safety. Score, 18 to 0.

Second half: Wickliffe took Hayes' position at center. Culley took east goal and kicked off, F. Donovan making goal on a sensational end run. Culley failed to kick goal. Score, 23 to 0.

Culley took west goal and kicked off. Culley punted to the Cairo ten-yard line. Bower made touchdown on a line buck. Wickliffe kicked goal. Score, 29 to 0.

Cairo took west goal and kicked off. Game was called at this time on account of Peabody getting hurt.

Culley—Hayes, c.; Brooks, Owen, Harter, l. e.; Coburn, r. e.; Bower and Burton, r. t.; Keller, l. t.; J. Donovan, l. g.; F. Donovan, q.; B. Bower, f. b.; St. John, l. h.; Sights, c. r. h.

Rudy, referee. Lacy, Well and Ericson, time-keepers.

Reed, Dawes and Burton, linemen. Pat Farron, umpire. Length of halves, 25-20.

Professionals and Odd Sox.

The Professionals defeated the Odd Sox in a spirited game yesterday morning at the Wallace park grounds the halves being thirty minutes. Hughes made a nine yard dash through the left tackle, while the score was 10 to 5 in favor of the Professionals. Nelo Mitchell and Roy Hoewischer made touchdowns for the winners, while Harold St. John made one for the vanquished. The game was refereed by Edward Cave, with Robert Fisher as the umpire.

The line-up for the Professionals was as follows: Frank Swift, center; Clifford Ritchey, right guard; Frank Young, left guard; Roy El-cott, left tackle; Roy Hoewischer, left end; Harold Williamson, right tackle; Edwin Lightfoot, captain and right end; Roy Moore, left half; Frank Street, right half; George Hughes, full back; Nelo Mitchell, quarter back. The Odd Sox's line-up was: Herbert Shelton, center; John Robinson, left guard; Harold St. John, left half; George Shelton, right half; Charles Endress, full back; Lucien Burnett, quarter back; Louis Mingus, left tackle; Harry Berry, right end; Rabb Noble Kirkland, left end; Clyde Lloyd, right guard; Albert Savage, right tackle.

Notes of the Game.

Brooks and Coburn made long gains on forward passes, and on end runs tackled the Cairo backs for big losses.

Sights, Bower and St. John went through Cairo's line for long gains at all times, and they had the visitors guessing on their formations and interference work.

Keller broke through Cairo's line many times, tackling men for a loss. Quarterback Donovan was in the game at all times and used good judgment in calling signals.

Culley linemen tore big holes in their opponents' line, breaking through and blocking plays.

Wickliffe is the star goal kicker for Culley.

Owen played a fast game on end the second half.

NOT QUALIFIED

POINT MADE AGAINST TREASURER-ELECT J. J. DORIAN.

Question as to His Successor May Bring on Lawsuit, as Captain Kraus May Contest.

The claim is being put forth that City Treasurer John J. Dorian, elected November 5 to succeed himself by a large majority, is disqualified, because the state constitution expressly declares that no fiscal officer is eligible to a second term immediately following another.

Democrats insist that since Mr. Dorian, who was accorded the election certificate, was not qualified for the office when he ran, Capt. William Kraus, the defeated candidate, got the highest vote of anyone qualified in the race, and therefore was elected and should have the office.

Republicans say that if Mr. Dorian is disqualified, there will be a vacancy in the office January 1, which Mayor James P. Smith will fill until the election two years hence.

The constitutional provision referred to is:

"No mayor or chief executive or fiscal officer of any city of the first or second class, after the expiration of the term of office to which he has been elected under this constitution shall be eligible for the succeeding term. Fiscal officers shall not include an auditor or assessor or any other officer whose chief duty is not the collection or holding of public moneys."

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Prominent Temperance Advocate Indorses

MR. GEORGE FOSTER COLLINS.

Mr. George Foster Collins, of Lincoln, Neb., who is 73 years old, a member of the Presbyterian Church, prominent in politics, a life long and strenuous advocate of temperance, has been greatly benefited by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and conscientiously recommends it as the best tonic stimulant for the old.

"I am 73 years old. I was born in Wayne County, N. Y., on March 21, 1834. Our family moved to Michigan shortly after this. I grew up on the farm, then studied law, was admitted to the bar, was County Clerk of St. Clair County, Mich., which office I held four years. Then was for a time Secretary of the Midland Railway of Michigan. I moved with my family to a farm in Gage County, Nebraska, in 1874; was a member of the County Board eight years. In 1890 was elected State Senator. Foster, my middle name, has been transmitted in the family for over 100 years from father to son. Mrs. Collins and myself are members of the Presbyterian Church of Lincoln, where we have lived for the last four years. We celebrated the fifty-third anniversary of our marriage on March 23d, 1907.

"From early youth have been a strenuous advocate of temperance principles and strongly opposed to the use of liquor in any form. Over a year ago I began to feel a gradual decline of the vital forces. I had read and heard much about the benefits to be derived from the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey by those in my condition, and was advised by an old friend and temperance worker who had received much benefit from its use to overcome my prejudices against liquor and try it. I took his advice and have been greatly benefited by it, and can conscientiously recommend all those passing into the "sear and yellow leaf" of life to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey."—GEORGE FOSTER COLLINS, 2509 P Street, Lincoln, Neb., May 15th, 1907.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nervous tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces; it makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat all the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Now, therefore in pursuance to the motion under seal of said court, to me directed, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming said boat Ennice, or in any way interested therein, that they be and appear before the district court of the United States in the city of Paducah, Ky., on or before the 2nd day of December, 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m., of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

THEATRICAL NOTES

AT THE KENTUCKY.
Tonight—Dixie Minstrels (colored)
Saturday (matinee and night)—
"Parsifal" in English.
Monday Night—"My Wife's Family."

Colored Minstrels.

The Dandy Dixie Minstrels, a colored aggregation appears at the Kentucky theater tonight and a good comedy and first class singing and dancing are promised. The concert and street parade headed by the minstrel band, were excellent.

"Parsifal."

A play as broad in its interests as humanity itself. Elaborate and spectacular in production with its portrayal of the elemental passions, absorbing as a dream of the highest good, yet keen and intense in its appeal to the individual; such is the description of the Wagner wonder drama which Paducah playgoers are to see in its new English dress at the Kentucky Saturday matinee and night, November 30. It is generally conceded to be a condition of dramatic art that human interests must be paramount, and this condition has been complied with in the translation of "Parsifal." Abstract ideas and poetic fancies are made real in the characters and experiences of living persons. The faith that good shall be the final goal of all, forms the legend wrought out to certitude in the action of the play. The faculty of low cunning, craft, duplicity and all the unlovely brood of the nether world, when opposed by the nobler intelligence which comprehends but disregards them all, is demonstrated in this thrilling drama, which centers around the personality of the son of many generations of soldier sires, whom his mother would have made a shepherd of but whom destiny made a king. There is sound philosophy and true art in the final description of the personality of Parsifal.

A guileless fool—in the eyes of the foolish—not by wrath, nor by cynicism, nor by cheap worldly wisdom, but by pity enlightened.

As a spectacle "Parsifal" is a tremendous enterprise; the scenery is on a lavish scale and the illuminations and electric effects form a striking feature of the production. An augmented orchestra of twenty musicians will render the soul-stirring strains of Parsifal as an accompaniment to the wondrous text.

The hour of commencement will differ from that of the former custom, the long dinner intermission having been eliminated now permits of giving the play at one sitting. The curtain for the evening performance will rise promptly at 7:45. Auditors should be in their seats when the performance begins, as none will be seated during the action of the play. The matinee will begin at 2:15 sharp.

"My Wife's Family."

Concerning "My Wife's Family," at the Kentucky Monday night, the Chicago American said:

"A week's engagement of hilarity was inaugurated at the Columbus theater yesterday when the musical comedy, 'My Wife's Family,' was greeted by two immense audiences. The players presenting the piece are very capable and give a fine performance."

PANAMA PRESIDENT VISITS ROOSEVELT.

Washington, Nov. 29.—President Amador, of Panama, arrived here last evening to pay his respects to President Roosevelt before his return to the Isthmus. Tomorrow President Amador will be driven through the city and at 2 o'clock President and Mrs. Amador will call on President Roosevelt. An hour later President and Mrs. Roosevelt will return the call at President Amador's hotel. Dinner at the white house in the evening and later a reception will be given them.

12 SALOONS QUIT AT MARION.

Licenses Will Not Be Renewed Because of Local Option Law.

Marion, Ill., Nov. 29.—Twelve saloons went out of business in this city at 12 o'clock on account of the local option law. Their licenses expire today, and owing to the fact that on December 5 the local option law goes into effect, no license will be renewed. One thousand dollars each per year was the price the saloons were paying into the city treasury.

Wearing Mourning.

The Advocate must be allowed again to enter its protest against the heathenish habit of wearing mourning for the dead. Nothing can be said in defense of this custom and much against it. Why should we wish to advertise our sorrow? It appears that many a woman puts on widow's weeds simply because she

$15.00 SUITS

In buying clothes you can't judge by the price alone. Fifteen dollar suits are mighty common about this town, but suits at $15, with the style and good making characteristic of these garments are mighty hard to find. The reason is, other stores charge $18 to $20 for them. Come and see if isn't true. See the clothes themselves; that's the test.

$15.00 OVERCOATS

Same way in overcoats. There's a noticeably stylish swing to our new "Addison"—a jaunty, semi-form-fitting garment, made up in gray cassimere, black Thibet and unfinished worsted, handsomely lined, perfectly tailored. You'll certainly like the "Addison." It costs $15.

Daily Thought.

Your religion is not to be measured by what you are giving up, but by
what you are giving out.

It has become customary to reserve
a modicum of our thanksgiving for
the day succeeding a national holiday, in order to be duly grateful for preservation of life and limb through
the strenuous observance of the occasional.

IRONY OF POPULAR GOVERN- MENT.

Qualified or disqualified for the office of city treasurer, two things cannot be disputed: John J. Dorian was the choice of the people of Paducah for that office and he and everybody else in the city were entirely innocent of any knowledge of the disqualification. We trust the provision of the constitution may not comprehend his office; for if it does,
the disqualification, that he is not entitled to succeed himself, is a technicality, and has no basis in sound reasoning. The constitution
says that a fiscal officer shall not be entitled to two successive terms. It was evidently founded on one of two theories: that it would be dangerous
to permit any man to remain in a position an unlimited number of years, or that the offices should be rotated, so that all the politicians
may have a chance at them. One of the theories is silly and the other pernicious.

The strongest argument in favor
of Mr. Dorian's retention in office,
was that he is perfectly familiar with the duties and has made an excellent official. His opponent the last days of the campaign recognized
this advantage and published a statement from a bonding company as to the manner in which he had conducted the office during a previous term.

If that disqualification stands and Mr. Dorian cannot hold the title of office, it would be perversion of the will of the people to take the office
away from the man the majority voted for and give it to the man the majority voted against. But such is sometimes the irony of popular government.

Captain Kraus may produce evidence that he is elected, because the man, who defeated him, is disqualified; but we rather incline to the view that, if Mr. Dorian is disqualified, there will be a vacancy in office
next January, and Mayor James P.
Smith will be in a position to remedy
this defect in recording the will of the people.

If wild animals, game for the hunters, could read, they would see their revenge in every issue of the daily papers. A Chicago paper's statistics show 151 accidents since
the season opened with 70 fatalities
from gunshot wounds. Calculated
in the ratio of the number of hunters
to the number of rabbits, quail,
pheasants, etc., it is doubtful if the quadrupeds have suffered in comparison to humans in this game of death.

It is gratifying to the good citizens of the city to learn that the school trustees-elect will assume their seats in the board. It is a promising body of representative citizens.

OUR FORESTS.

No question of domestic policy,
more important than that of forest
preservation confronts the American people today. Aside from the easily comprehended subject of maintaining a timber supply, the forest trees
retain the moisture in the ground,
have much to do with the regulation
of the supply of water in our rivers,
the arability of the soil, the rainfall,
direction of winds and all conditions
directly affecting agriculture and inland transportation.

The great plains of the interior
have been stripped of their wooded covering to provide farm and grazing land, and never will be replenished unless the time comes when
the farms are deserted and the country gone to waste. But on the mountain sides the ruthless, extravagant hand of corporation and private greed not only has cut down the merchantable timber, but the refuse
has been allowed to lie on the ground, killing off the young trees,
and offering every opportunity for forest fires, that have devastated tracts greater than those hewn out by the ax of the woodsman.

The present administration has taken up these problems more seriously and systematically than did any preceding administration, and the department of forestry is doing wonders in the way—not so much of prohibiting the cutting of trees, as
of protecting the growing timber
from destruction; so that a new crop
of timber may be coming on constantly, while the ripe trees are worked up into lumber.

The American Forestry association
is actively engaged in disseminating knowledge of conditions throughout the country. It is a subject that comes close home to every American.

It is interesting, and whatever view
a man may take of the question of forest preservation, it is his duty, as well as privilege, to acquaint himself
with the subject.

Prof. T. E. Willis, secretary of the association, will address the public at the Woman's club tonight. The lecture is free, and Paducahans are urged to attend.

"Harriman and Hill are at peace,"
say press dispatches, and we must admit the tale does not sound fishy.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT.

It is better to trust to your faults
than to be false to your trusts.

Any man can get married if he isn't too slow to embrace the opportunity.

Not Accepted Everywhere.

Wife—You and I are one, aren't
we?

Hubby—Yes, I believe so, but I can't make them see it that way at the theater, for I have to buy two seats.

BLINDFOLDED

A Mystery Story
of San Francisco

BY
EARLE ASHLEY WALCOTT

(Copyright 1908, the Dobbie-Merrill Co.)

The policeman led the way into the dimly-lighted building that served as a temple.

I lingered a moment by the door to see that all my party passed in.

"There's Wainwright," whispered
Porter, who closed the procession.

"Where?" I asked, a dim remembrance of the mission on which I had sent him in pursuit of the snake-eyed
man giving the information a sinister
twist.

Porter gave a chirrup and Wainwright halted at the door.

"He's just passed up the alley here,"
said Wainwright in a low voice.

"Who? Terrill?" I asked.

"Yes," said Wainwright. "I've kept
him in sight all the evening."

"Hasn't he seen you?" asked Porter.

"I spied you as soon as you turned the corner."

"Don't know," said Wainwright;
"but something's up. There he goes
now. I mustn't miss him." And Wainwright was off.

The presence of Terrill gave me
some tremors of anxiety, for I knew that his unscrupulous ferocity would stop at nothing. Then I reflected that the presence of Doddridge Knapp's daughter was a protection against an attack from Doddridge Knapp's agents, and I followed the party into
the heathen temple without further apprehensions.

The temple was small, and the dim,
religious light gave an air of mystery
to the ugly figure of the god and the trappings of the place.

"That's one of the richest carvings
ever brought into this country," said
Corson, pointing to a part of the altar
mounting. "Ten thousand dollars
wouldn't touch one side of it."

"You don't say!" cried Mrs. Bowser,
while the rest murmured in the effort
to admire the work of art. "And is that stuff burning for a disinfectant?"

She pointed to numerous pieces of punk, such as serve the small boy on the Fourth of July, that were consuming slowly before the ugly joss.

"No, ma'am—not but they needs it
all right enough," said Corson, "but that's the haythen way of sayin' your prayers."

This information was so astonishing
that Corson was allowed to finish his explanation without further remarks
from Mrs. Bowser.

"I'll show you the theater next,"
said he, as he led the way of the temple with Mrs. Bowser giving her views of the picturesque heathen in questions that Corson found no break
in the conversation long enough to answer. As I lingered for a moment
in some depression of spirit, waiting for the others to file out, a voice that thrilled me spoke in my ear.

"Our guide is enjoying a great favor." It was Luella, noticing me for the first time since the expedition had started.

"He has every reason to be delighted," I returned, brightening at the favor I was enjoying.

"Foreign travel is said to be of great value in education," said Luella, taking my arm, "but it's certainly stupid
at times."

I suspected that Mr. Carter had not been entirely successful in meeting
Miss Knapp's ideas of what an escort
should be.

"I didn't suppose you could find anything stupid," I said.

"I am intensely interested," she retorted, "but unfortunately the Hat of subjects has come to an end."

"You might have begun at the beginning again."

"He did," she whispered, "so I thought it time he tried the guide or Aunt Julia."

"Thank you," I said.

"Thank him, you mean," she said
gaily. Now don't be stupid yourself,
so please change the subject. Do you know," she continued without giving me time to speak, "that the only way I can be reconciled to this place and
the sights we have seen is to imagine
I am in Canton or Peking, thousands of miles from home? Seen there, it is interesting, instructive, natural—a part of the people. As a part of San Francisco it is only vile."

"Come this way," said Corson, halting with the party at one of the doors.
"I'll show you through some of the opium dens, and that will bring us to the stage door of the theater."

"How close and heavy the air is!"
said Luella, as we followed the winding passage in the dim illumination
that came from an occasional gas jet
or oil lamp.

"The yellow man is a firm believer
in the motto, 'Ventilation is the root
of all evil,' I admitted.

The fumes of tobacco and opium
were heavy on the air, and a moment
later we came on a cluster of small rooms or dens, fitted with couches and bunks. It needed no description to make the purpose plain. The whole process of intoxication by opium was before me, from the heating of the metal pipe to the final stupor that is the gift and end of the Black Smoke.

Here, was a cooie mixing the drug;
there, just beyond him, was another,
drawing whiffs from the bubbling narcotic through the bamboo handle of his pipe; there, still beyond, was another, lying back unconscious, half-clad, repulsive, a very sorry reality indeed to the gorgeous dreams that are reputed to follow in the train of the seductive pipe.

"This is depressing," said Luella,
with a touch on my arm. "Let's go
on."

"Turn to the right there," Corson
called out, as we led the way while he was explaining to Mr. Carter the method of smoking.

"Let us get where there is some
air," said Luella. "This odor is sickening."

We hastened on, and, turning to the right, soon came out two passages. One led up a stair, hidden by a turn after half a dozen steps. The other stretched 50 or 75 feet before us, and an oil lamp on a bracket at the farther end gave a smoky light to the passage and to a mean little court on which it appeared to open.

"We had better wait for the rest,"
said Luella cautiously.

As she spoke, one of the doors toward the farther end of the passage
swung back and a tall, heavy figure came out. My heart gave a great bound, and I felt without realizing it
at the moment that Luella clutched
my arm fiercely.

In the dim light the figure was the
head of the Wolf and though no light

shone upon it, the face was the face of the Wolf, livid, distorted with anger, fear and brutal passions.

"Doddridge Knapp!" I exclaimed, and gave a step forward.

It flashed on me that one mystery
was explained. I had found out why the Doddridge Knapp of plot and counterplot, and the Doddridge Knapp who was the generous and confidential employer, could dwell in the same body.

The King of the Street was a slave of the Black Smoke, and, like many another, went mad under the influence of the subtle drug.

As I moved forward, Luella clung to me and gave a low cry. The Wolf
and was gone.

"Take me home, oh, take me home!"
cried Luella in low suppressed tones, trembling and half-falling. I put my arm about her to support her.

"What is it?" I asked.

She leaned upon me for one moment, and the black walls and gloomy passage became a palace filled with flowers. Then her strength and resolution returned and she shook herself
free.

"Come; let us go back to the others," she said a little unsteadily. "We should not have left them."

"Certainly," I replied. "They ought to be here by this time."

But as we turned a sudden cry
sounded as of an order given. There was a bang of wood and a click of metal, and as we looked we saw that unseen hands had closed the way to our return. A barred and iron-bound door was locked in our faces.

DAY IS OBSERVED

to visit the early home of President
Madison near Mt. Peller, Va.

Earl Gray's Birthday.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 29.—Earl Gray,
governor general of the Dominion,
was the recipient of many congratulations on the occasion of his sixtysixth birthday. Among the senders
were many of his friends and admirers in England where he is remembered with gratitude for his sincere
work in the cause of practical temperance and social betterment.

Paris Colony Celebrates.

Paris, Nov. 29.—The feature on the Thanksgiving celebration of the American colony in Paris was a banquet at the Hotel Palate D'Orsay, at which a typical American menu was served; including the honored turkey and pumpkin pie. The principal speakers were Professor George S.
Baker, who is to lecture at the Sor-bonne this winter, and Leo Mielziner.

At Berlin.

Berlin, Nov. 29.—Never has the American colony in Berlin held a more notable observance of Thanksgiving day. The celebration took the form of a banquet and ball in the beautiful assembly rooms of the Zoological garden. After the banquet speeches were made by President
Hadley, of Yale University, and Prof-Schiffeld, of Harvard.

Customary Observance.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Thanksgiving day was celebrated in Chicago in the customary manner. The banks,
schools, exchanges and nearly all business houses were closed and the day was observed as a general holiday. Special services were held in the churches during the forenoon. In the afternoon there were matinees at all the theaters and a variety of athletic sports and other amusements.

Americans in London.

London, Nov. 29.—Americans in London held a number of dinners,
receptions and other functions in celebration of Thanksgiving day.
But the most interesting of all, perhaps, was the dinner given by the Five O'clock club, every article of the menu coming from across the water. The turkey came from Rhode Island, the mince pies from Boston,
the sherry from California and so on
through the list.

New York's Observance.

New York, Nov. 29.—If any New Yorker failed to feel the Thanksgiving spirit it was not because of his lack of opportunity to get into touch with one or more celebrations. Religious services were held at all the churches and deeds of charity had their usual prominent place in the routine of events. The Salvation Army, the Volunteers, church organizations and political clubs saw to it
that the poor of the city were well provided for. The ragmuffin masquerade, a feature typical of Thanksgiving day in the metropolis, was carried out on an even larger scale
than in previous years.

Be at peace with your neighbor
even if it means war with yourself.

The Body Merely Machine.

There are just any number of diseases in which the Osteopathic is the only treatment that will give any relief at all.

The various phases of neuralgia
and rheumatism as an example yield
more readily to the Osteopathic
treatment than they do to medicine.
So too do lumbago, chronic headaches, partial paralysis and kindred ailments, and to one who knows the first principals of Osteopathy it is easily to see why this is so.

Osteopathy is a scientific system
of exercise for the nerves and organs
of the body—simply manipulation
by which it restores structural normality. The body is a machine run
by unseen forces called life, and that it may run harmoniously it is necessary that there be liberty of blood,
nerves and arteries from the generating point to destination. This is what osteopathy does—gives liberty
to the blood, nerves and arteries.

PEOPLE AND SOCIAL EVENTS

Thanksgiving Dinner.
Miss Mattie Trotter entertained with a Thanksgiving supper Thursday. The house was effectively decorated in colors of pink and green. There were many guests present and a pleasant evening was spent.

Parties to Popular Paducah Women.
The Nashville Banner has the following social notices of some attractive Paducah visitors in that city:

"Among the automobile parties at the Thanksgiving game will be one given by Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Watts for their guests, Mrs. Campbell Flournoy and Mrs. Robert Phillips."

"Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Parks will entertain a family party at 6 o'clock dinner on Thanksgiving to compliment Mrs. Parks' sisters, Miss Anna Webb and Mrs. Robert Phillips and Mrs. Campbell Flournoy, of Paducah, who arrived this morning."

"One of the most attractively planned bridge parties of the season was that given by Mrs. F. O. Watts Tuesday afternoon to compliment her guests, Mrs. Robert Phillips and Mrs. Campbell Flournoy, of Paducah, Ky., for whom a round of entertainments are being given this week. The guest list included forty of the married element and the handsome Watts home, which is so well adapted for entertaining, presented a charming appearance, decorated in exotics and a wealth of flowers, including many gift bouquets. Great stands of pink chrysanthemums were very effective in the parlor and superb white chrysanthemums were used in the library. In the dining room the center table was ornamented with a large bouquet of the specimen yellow blooms. As the guests arrived egg-nog was served from a table in the hall by Mrs. Frank G. Flite. The bridge tables were scattered through four reception rooms and scores in the game were Mrs. Whiteford Cole and Mrs. Duncan P. Kenner. The handsome prize presented the guest making the highest score of the afternoon was a cut glass pitcher and the consolation souvenir was an artistic Japanese plaque. After the game an elaborate menu of two courses was served. Mrs. Watts was beautifully and becomingly gowned in a princess creation of pink taffeta finished with white lace, and Mrs. Phillips was lovely in yellow broadcloth chiffon cloth, elaborately embroidered and trimmed with gold lace. Mrs. Flournoy was charming in white satin made after a princess model and combined with lace and silver. Mrs. Phillips will be Mrs. Watts' guest until Saturday, when she goes for her visit to Bellwood, and Mrs. Flournoy will be with Mrs. Watts through next week."

Moors in Two Days' Battle.
Paris, Nov. 29.—A cablegram received here from Gen. Druide, commander of the French forces in Morocco, recites that a sanguinary engagement lasting two days occurred between tribesmen near Rabat. On the one side was a force fighting for Abd-el-Aziz, the sultan of record, while on the other was the Shaouia tribe, constituting a column of the army of Mulai Hadd, the sultan of the south. During the height of the battle the Zaida tribesmen, who were fighting for Abd-el-Aziz, suddenly went over to the enemy, after which this sultan's column was forced to retreat, losing several cannon. The casualty list on both sides was large.

Gets Another Job.
St. Paul, Nov. 29.—George Goodall, since 1892 general superintendent of the Great Western railway, has resigned to take a similar position with a western road.

Abraham Hummel is Ill.
New York, Nov. 29.—Abraham Hummel, formerly well known lawyer in criminal and divorce courts here, is seriously ill at Blackwell's Islands, New York city prison.

VILLAGES PILLAGED BY THE KURDISH HORSEMEN.

Constantinople, Nov. 29.—Under the protection of the notorious Ibrahim Pasha, who is known as the "despot of Kurdistan," Kurdish horsemen are making raids without discrimination, Turkish villages suffering equally with Armenian homesteads on the plains around Diarbekir and Jezireh-Ibn-Omar. Sixteen villages have been pillaged and burned within the last month in these districts and eight villages in the Sert district have met the same fate. Some of Ibrahim's villages were shelled recently by Turkish troops and 60 Kurds were killed.

Mass meetings are being held at which the removal of Ibrahim Pasha is being demanded. At a meeting held at Van a denunciation of the "venal and corrupt government at Constantinople" and the suggestion that Asia Minor should declare its independence thereof aroused great enthusiasm, and 25,000 Moslems and Christians are reported to have pledged their lives to the movement in favor of autonomy.

Troops Blow Safe; Get $10,000.
Samarkand, Russian Turkestan, Nov. 29.—A force of forty men, uniformed and commanded by two officers, today surrounded the main railroad station here, formed sentries, and blew open the safes, securing $10,000.

PHONES HER HUSBAND OF ATTACK BY MAN AT HOME.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 29.—Attorney Charles E. Summers, of St. Louis, was startled today to receive a telephone message from his young wife, whom he had left ill in bed at their home in Webster Groves, a suburb, informing him that she was besieged by a man outside the house who threatened to burn the place.

After an anxious hour Summers succeeded in reaching the county sheriff by phone and asked that deputies be hurried to his wife's assistance. Summers reached neighbors by the same method and implored them to see to the safety of his wife, meanwhile he kept in touch with her over the wire, encouraging her and giving instructions how to conduct a defense of the house.

The deputies reached Summers' home as soon as cars and vehicles could transport them and arrested James Rieger, a laborer. He had been ordered away from the home of Mrs. Bettie Dunhouse, but returned in an ugly mood, and after forcing Mrs. Dunhouse to flee with her five children, threatened Mrs. Summers at her home. The deputies overpowered him after a struggle.

BIG DIAMOND ROBBERY.
A Wealthy Mexican Loses $40,000 While Giving Dinner.

Mexico City, Nov. 29.—News of one of the biggest robberies ever committed in this city has just become public. While Hugo Scherer, a wealthy banker of this city, was giving a dinner to a number of friends last Sunday, $40,000 worth of jewelry and several hundred dollars in cash were taken from the house. Mrs. Scherer gave the alarm on missteps, the jewelry when she went to the room during the banquet.

None of the jewelry or money has been recovered.

No Smoking in City Hall.
Cleveland, O., Nov. 29.—The use of tobacco in any form by city hall employees was forbidden by President W. J. Springborn, of the board of public service, in charge of the hall. He admits the order was inspired by no less an authority than Mayor Tom L. Johnson. The mayor, who almost constantly draws on a briar pipe while in his office, says he shall obey his own order.

"I'll be a victim of the reform we have decided on," said Mayor Johnson.

"In the offices, which, by any chance, are visited by the public the use of tobacco is forbidden from this date," read the order of President Springborn.

"After working hours tobacco may be resorted to," a postscript read.

Miss Anna Tomlinson, of Golconda, Ill., is the guest of Miss Polly Durrett, 625 North Seventh street.

SECRETARY TAFT WISHES TO HURRY HIS AUDIENCE.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—As a result of the fact that Washington has cabled Secretary Taft requesting him to hasten his return to the United States, the secretary, who is coming across the trans-Siberian railroad and is due at Moscow next Saturday, has sent a telegram to Montgomery Schuyler, Jr., the American charge d'affaires, asking him if possible to arrange the audience with Emperor Nicholas so as to enable Mr. Taft to leave St. Petersburg the afternoon of December 4, instead of the night of December 5, as provided for in the original schedule. Mr. Taft says that he must catch the steamer President Grant, which will sail from Hamburg December 7, and that if he leaves St. Petersburg on the 5th even the closest connections will make it hardly possible for him to get to Hamburg in time.

TWO HEARTS

PAINTED ON TRUNKS TOLD THE STORY ON COUPLE.

Honeymoon Trip Exposed By Some Artistic Friends of Lexington People at Hotel.

When H. T. Harris, of Lexington, Ky., and his bride reached the Palmer House yesterday they found their identity discovered, something quite contrary to their wishes. They had sent their trunks ahead and telegraphed for rooms in the hope of starting on their honeymoon without detection. When they entered their rooms, however, they saw that discovery had been made, for some artist friend had placed a heart on each trunk, and in the center was the inscription, nicely engrossed in colored chalks:

"Two hearts that beat as one," "That's George's work; I know his drawing," exclaimed the groom. "I'll fix him when I see him." "How'd thing?" said the bride. "Then the pair, dismissing the grinning ganyemed who stood in the door, spent an hour rubbing out the two hearts that beat as one on the trunk ends.

At least, Manager Shaeffer says they did, for when they left to go north, the signs of love were not visible on the baggage. "I bet Cupid wept when those valentines were rubbed out," he said with a sigh.

LABORER SHOT RAILROAD MAN. Pursued By Hunters and Riddled With Bullets.

Mifflintown, Pa., Nov. 29.—Julius Deer, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad, was shot and fatally wounded by an unidentified Italian laborer, who was pursued by a party of hunters and shot dead. The Italian, who had been drinking and was disorderly, shot Deer when ordered from the railroad station. When pursued the Italian took refuge under a railroad bridge, drew a revolver and began firing at his pursuers, who returned the shots, killing him instantly.

PARTY HISTORY OF REPUBLICANS

Recalled By Approach of National Committee Meeting.

Every State and Territory Will Be Represented in Convention to Be Held Next June.

HOW MEN HAVE BEEN CHOSEN

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—When the Republican national committee meets in this city next week it will be to decide upon the time and place for holding the fourteenth national convention of that party. Times and conditions have changed wonderfully since the Republicans held their first national convention in Philadelphia a little over a half century ago.

The delegates were not chosen then on the basis of representation which now prevails. For instance, in the convention of 1856 New York had 96 delegates, Pennsylvania 81, Ohio 69, in the party's fourteenth national convention, which will be held next June, every state and territory of the union will be represented.

In 1856 the popular vote for the Republican candidate for president John C. Fremont, of California, was 4,341,264. In 1904 Mr. Roosevelt received 7,623,486. The state of New York has more voters now of all parties than the entire Republican vote of fifty years ago.

In the first national convention of the Republican party there were two candidates for the presidential nomination—John C. Fremont, of California, and John McLean, of Ohio. McLean was the preference of the old-time Whigs who had identified themselves with the Republican party. He was tainted with "Know-Nothingism," however, and that was the prime cause of his defeat.

When the party held its second convention in Chicago, in 1860, the nomination of William H. Seward, of New York, seemed a foregone conclusion, but the honor was bestowed on Abraham Lincoln, who was renominated in 1864 by the Baltimore convention. Gen. U. S. Grant was nominated, practically without a dissenting voice, at the Chicago convention of 1868, and renominated unanimously at the Philadelphia convention in 1872. In the convention of 1876, at Cincinnati, James G. Blaine led all other candidates for the nomination for six ballots, but was defeated on the seventh by Rutherford B. Hayes. On the first ballot Mr. Blaine had 285 votes, which were increased to 351 on the seventh. General Hayes had only 61 votes on the first ballot and 113 on the sixth. On the seventh ballot he received 384 votes, or six more than were necessary to a choice. It was Blaine against the field—and the field was stronger than Maine's "magnetic statesman."

In the convention of 1880, at Chicago, the "old guard" made a desperate effort to nominate General Grant for a third term. The general led all other candidates for thirty-five ballots. The unit rule received its death blow in this convention, and on the thirty-sixth ballot James A. Garfield was nominated. Blaine was again a candidate, and received almost as many votes up to the thirty-fifth ballot as General Grant. Then the "dark horse" carried off the prize. In 1884, at Chicago, Mr. Blaine realized his ambition and was nominated for the presidency, but beaten at the polls by his Democratic opponent, Grover Cleveland. The convention of 1888 lasted six days. John Sherman, of Ohio, led for seven ballots. On the eighth he was beaten by Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana. At Minneapolis, in 1892, President Harrison was renominated on the first ballot, but was beaten at the polls by Mr. Cleveland. William McKinley was nominated on the first ballot at St. Louis in 1896, and renominated unanimously at Philadelphia in 1900. In 1904, at Chicago, President Theodore Roosevelt was nominated without opposition.

Treasury Auditor Resigns. Washington, Nov. 29.—Erbert G. Timme, auditor of the treasury for the state department, has resigned. His successor has not yet been named. Timme, who resigns for personal reasons, was appointed fifth auditor of the treasury department in 1892 and is from Kenosha, Wis.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Committed by Leading Stove Dealer in New York—Shot Wife.

New York, Nov. 29.—John Whitley, one of the leading dealers in stoves, ranges and house-heating apparatus in Brooklyn, and vice president of the Reliance Ball Bearing Door Hanger company, killed his wife with two pistol shots early today, as she lay sleeping in a room on the ninth floor of the Hotel Belle Claires. Whitley then leaped from the window into the street, being instantly killed by the fall. Whitley was 60 years old and his wife 30. They had a home in the fashionable section of Brooklyn, but had been living temporarily at the Belle Claires.

For nearly ten years Lantz's Red Kidney Pills were sold only to the medical profession and were prescribed and used by them in their regular practice with uniform success in thousands of cases where kidney or bladder trouble was indicated.

Not long ago the Antiseptic Remedy Co., South Bend, Ind., in view of the fact that they were receiving so many inquiries from druggists and sufferers from kidney trouble regarding this great diuretic remedy, decided to change their policy of distribution and offer their remedies direct to the public through the druggists. In pursuance of this policy we have been appointed their sole agents in this community, and will be pleased to give any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble a two days' trial treatment free.

YARDAMAN BLOW TO IMMIGRATION

Mississippi to be Shunned by Europeans Hereafter

Whole South Injured by Alleged Abuse of Foreigners in That State in Past.

APPEALS HAVE BEEN IN VAIN.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—"In the east, yes; in the north, yes; in the west, yes; but, ah, in the south, no, no, no," exclaimed an attaché of the Austro-Hungarian embassy, with a dramatic wave of his hand, when asked whether his humble countrymen who come to America were prospering, says the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune.

He was talking of the action of his government in establishing a boycott upon the state of Mississippi. This step was absolutely necessary, he declared, because both the federal and state authorities had absolutely failed to protect the foreigners, so that there was nothing for his home government to do but to warn its citizens intending to come to the United States to keep away from the state of Mississippi in particular, and to be careful of other southern states as well.

"Men have been murdered in the south," he said, "and not the slightest attention has been paid to it by any of the authorities. Our citizens in some localities have been treated exactly as the negroes have been treated. If they resist they are shot down or assaulted, and we have yet to hear of the first case in which a criminal has been punished."

Says Appeals Are Useless. "We appealed to the state department frequently," Mr. Root expressed greatest sympathy over the situation. He made certain protests to the Mississippi authorities, but the matter ended there. We deal, of course, with the federal government alone. We cannot appear in a state court, nor can we make the slightest representation direct to a governor or other state official.

"Assaults on the person of a laborer and attempts to deprive him of his property by a fraudulent contract can be punished only in your state courts. Foreign nations, therefore, are absolutely obliged to protect their citizens before they leave the fatherland, and the only way to protect them is to warn them that there are certain parts of the United States where they must go at their own risk."

"Thus far we have put the ban on Mississippi only, but there are plenty of similar reports from other states, and unless conditions improve greatly it will become necessary for my government to warn its citizens against the south generally, and this action is likely to be followed by other countries in Europe."

Italians Complain of Cruelty. Baron Mayor des Planches, Italian ambassador, will return to Washington in a day or two. The first thing which will require his attention will be protests received from Italian immigrants who have settled in Mississippi.

Aside from the peonage cases, in which a few indictments have been brought, there are many cases already presented to the state department involving cruel and unusual treatment of Italians in Mississippi for which the local authorities have absolutely refused to give redress.

Many more fortunate Italians have already begun to leave that state.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle, a paper, what his medicines are made of and what they will do for you. This he feels he can well afford to do because the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs. A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommending each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

but others are held there by means of the infamous imprisonment for debt statute in Mississippi, by means of which a farm laborer or tenant can be brought back by force and either compelled to work out his indebtedness or be sent to the chain gang.

One of the most horrible cases happened in the little town of Sumrall, Miss., a few days ago. It grew out of the school question, which was practically identical with that presented in the case of the Japanese at San Francisco, except that all of the Italian pupils were of proper school age.

Desire to Learn Dangerous. When the Italian children went to the public school there was an outcry from the white families of the neighborhood, although most of these white people are ignorant and poverty-stricken.

They demanded that the Italian children should be driven out of the school. The principal did not see his way clear to do that, although he was entirely in sympathy with the native element.

He accordingly referred the matter to the attorney general of the state, and that official, in an extraordinary opinion publicly delivered, declared that while he sympathized heartily with the attempt to keep the Italians out of school, there was no law by which they could be excluded.

Within a day or two after the decision of the attorney general, Frank Scialagioni, a poor Italian who had been somewhat prominent in expressing his desire that the children of his countrymen should have the benefit of an education, was met on the streets of the village by a crowd of local white citizens, who made no attempt to conceal their identity.

Cripple Is Victim of Mob.

Frank was a cripple, having lost one of his feet, leaving a partly healed stump between the ankle and the knee. The crowd caught him unawares, threw a rope around his neck, dragged him to the outskirts of the town, and there gave him a terrific beating, whacking him repeatedly on the stump of his amputated leg, and winding up with personal indignities of a character too horrible to be printed. He was warned that the same punishment would be measured out to every other Italian who sent his child to the public school.

The manager of the lumber company protested, of course, and a deputy sheriff was sent to make an investigation. No one has been punished for the outrage, however, and probably no one will be.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS

MAY BE SUNG AS USUAL IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

New York Board of Education Leaves Matter to Judgment of Superintendents.

New York, Nov. 29.—Christmas carols may still be sung and the holiday will be observed along traditional lines in the public schools of this city. Late today the board of education adopted a resolution which places that body on record as not opposed to these observances, and leaves the matter to the judgment of individual superintendents. In fact, members of the board declared afterward that there had never been any intention of abandoning these programs, and that the recent agitation had arisen from a misunderstanding of a resolution adopted by the board last February. This resolution provided that strictly sectarian matters must not be introduced into text or song books. Hence some changes in this winter's new publications had been deemed wise.

The books are now in press, and it was reported that all reference to Christ had been stricken from the proof sheets. The song books, it was rumored, would also contain no Christmas carols. Protest against the supposed action of the board followed, and many clergymen voted that the school children be allowed to celebrate Christmas in the old way.

IMMIGRANTS COMPLAIN

Of Ill Treatment in Mississippi—Foreign Government to Investigate.

Vienna, Nov. 28.—Agents whom the government sent to the United States to inquire into the complaints that the Austrian immigrants into that country were being subjected to ill treatment and the restriction of personal liberty, have reported to the government that the complaints were grossly exaggerated. Nevertheless the authorities have ordered them promptly to examine into every claim made by Austrians in America. The chief grievance is against the practice of employers in the southern states of deducting the cost of transportation from the wages of laborers.

Telephone Official Resigns.

Minneapolis, Nov. 28.—It is announced that H. J. Pettigill, president of the Northwestern Telephone exchange, has resigned and will be succeeded by E. Yost, president of the Nebraska and Iowa Telephone company.

Many a man wears a thinking cap under his silk hat.

Stomach Muscles in Old Age

People should be more and more careful, as age advances, to see that their bowels move regularly. In this way they can keep themselves in good health and prolong life. The bowels are not as active in middle-life and old age as they are in youth, and with the majority there is a tendency to constipation of a chronic and obstinate nature.

To ward off the possibility of serious diseases use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound. It is especially suited to the use of elderly people because it is prompt but gentle in action, and does its work without griping or weakening, as is the case with salts, purgative waters and cathartic tablets. These should not be used by children, women, old folks or weak people because they are too violent in action and generally grip. Furthermore, the results are temporary as reaction sets in and the bowels are bound up more than ever.

A remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is very gentle in action and yet thoroughly effective, and as it contains tonic properties, it strengthens the system instead of weakening it. The results are permanent because gradual, and may be in a short time away with the use of all laxatives. It will cure the most chronic constipation, dyspepsia, liver trouble, biliousness, flatulency, sour stomach, weak stomach, bloating, drowsiness after eating and such other stomach, liver and bowel troubles.

To prove how effective it is in serious cases the experience of Dr. Armstrong, of Decatur, Ill., can be cited. He suffered from a gunshot wound during the Civil War which caused a partial paralysis of the bowels and he has had ever since to use a laxative. He says he never found anything so effective or which worked so near to nature, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Try it and you will say the same. The price is 50 cents or $1 a bottle at any drug store.

PADUCAH PEOPLE

With Chronic Coughs Need Vinol—
It Stops the Cough and Cures
the Cause.

This is the season for coughs and colds, and for the benefit of Paducah people our local druggist, W. B. McPherson, tells them the best means for a cure.

He says: "Take Vinol, our real cod liver preparation without oil. It does not upset the stomach like cough syrups, and it is much more effective. Vinol is not a palliative but a curative."

This is because Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the healing, strength creating and medicinal elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod livers, with all the useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added. It tastes fine, and cannot upset the weakest stomach, hence its wonderful power to cure.

We ask every person in Paducah who has a chronic cough or hard cold to try Vinol on our guarantee, W. B. McPherson, Druggist, Paducah, Ky.

ROLLER CRAZE

CONTINUES IN NEW YORK CITY
AND IS INCREASING.

Streets Filled With Skaters and Asphalt is Enjoined By Rich and Poor.

New York, Nov. 29.—Roller skating seems to be as much of a fad with both the boys and girls as bicycle riding was a few years ago. But the new pastime is enjoyed by the poor as well as the rich. The streets are full of skaters, and the smooth asphalt streets make it possible for the children to skate back and forth to school. The sport seems to be universal throughout the city, and there are as many to be seen skating in the slums as in the fashionable residential sections. The custom of playing hockey on the sidewalks has become so common that it is probable that a law will have to be passed, as it was against cyclists, forbidding them to use the sidewalk. The fad, however, is not confined to the young people alone, but extends to all classes and ages, with the result that a great many new rinks have been opened, and some of them have been most elaborately and magnificently finished.

He Fought at Gettysburg.
David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alternative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggists, 50c.

STUYVESANT FISH, JR., FIREMAN ON THE FRISCO.

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 29.—After working for four months as a way-bill clerk in the Frisco freight office at Muskogee, Ok., Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., son of the former president of the Illinois Central, is a fireman on the Rock Island road. His friends were surprised when young Fish took off his coat and set to work as an ordinary clerk, but that was nothing to their astonishment when they found him in a grimy, coal-blackened suit shoveling coal into the Rock Island engines.

A Significant Prayer.
"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pair out of a feline for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds 25c at all druggists.

Agitation Unabated.
Paris, Nov. 28.—Advisers from Algeria state that the agitation among the turbulent frontier tribes is unabated. The governor of Algeria telegraphs that two thousand tribesmen have invaded Algerian territory, destroying much property. The governor has received an urgent request for troops from the mayor of Nemours, who says the town is threatened by a large horde of Arabs. Additional forces will be sent there to exact exemplary satisfaction.

AL KAUFMAN

GETS DECISION OVER "TWIN" SULLIVAN AT COLMA.

Clear Cut Victory for Colma Boy in Twenty-fifth Round—It Was a Disappointment.

Colma, Cal., Nov. 29.—Al Kaufman, of this city, was awarded the decision over Jack (Twin) Sullivan at the end of the twenty-fifth round. The decision was clear cut.

The fight up to the tenth round was practically an even affair. After that, however, Kaufman forged to the front and was never in danger again. Sullivan did his best work in the early rounds and for a time it looked as though he might win. It was a give and take affair up to the tenth with Sullivan having the better of it. In the sixteenth Kaufman cut loose. He forced Sullivan from one end of the ring to the other, landing almost at will with lefts and rights to the jaw. He tried to put Sullivan out, and in doing so weakened himself and showed that he lacked one requisite—a knock-out punch. From this time on one round was the repetition of the other. Sullivan showed great gameness throughout the balance of the fight. In almost every one of the following rounds it seemed certain that he must go to the mat from the grueling shower of right and left swings to the jaw, but he always toed the scratch although apparently in great distress. He stalled continually to save himself from punishment. Kaufman thereafter devoted his attacks to Sullivan's stomach and during the last few rounds put in several vicious punches, any one of which seemed powerful enough to put out any ordinary man.

The fight in so far as Kaufman was concerned was a great disappointment to the spectators. Inasmuch as it developed the fact that the Californian does not by far display the championship calibre with which he has been accredited.

The fight also developed that fact that Kaufman lacks both vim and viciousness. After the fight Sullivan claimed that he had injured his right hand during the sixth round, but if such was the case, it was not apparent to the spectators. Kaufman was the aggressor throughout, and clearly outfought Sullivan in all but a few rounds. The decision was eminently a just one, though it was displeasing to some of the spectators who seemed to think that Kaufman should have scored a knockout.

Sold for $10,000.

New York, Nov. 29.—Direct Hal, pacer, one of the holders of the world's team or pole record, 2:05 1/2 for one mile, sold for $10,000 to Howard Cobb, of Ithaca, N. Y., at the Old Glory Horse Sale today.

O'Brien, Swarthmore's crack quarterback, was a sad disappointment against Cornell.

Rummy dull football season this. Only a dozen players killed against 17 in 1906 and 21 in 1905.

Yale will lose several football players by graduation next June: Captain Biglow, Gongdon, Paige, Howard and Tad Jones, Bomar and Alcott.

Catcher Lou Criger will spend the winter in New Mexico in preparation for next season's work at the Boston Americans' expense.

"Pudge" Heffelfinger, the former Yale player and one of the greatest football players that ever hit the line, was a big attraction at the Yale-Harvard game.

"Germany" Schulz, of Michigan, who is a giant in size, has been picked by a good many as the best center in America.

Booker Washington's own football team, the Tuskegee Tigers, have been playing a few games in the north recently, but made a rather poor showing.

Lafayette players have adopted soccer as a game to develop lung power and wind. This ought to be a good game for prize fighters as well.

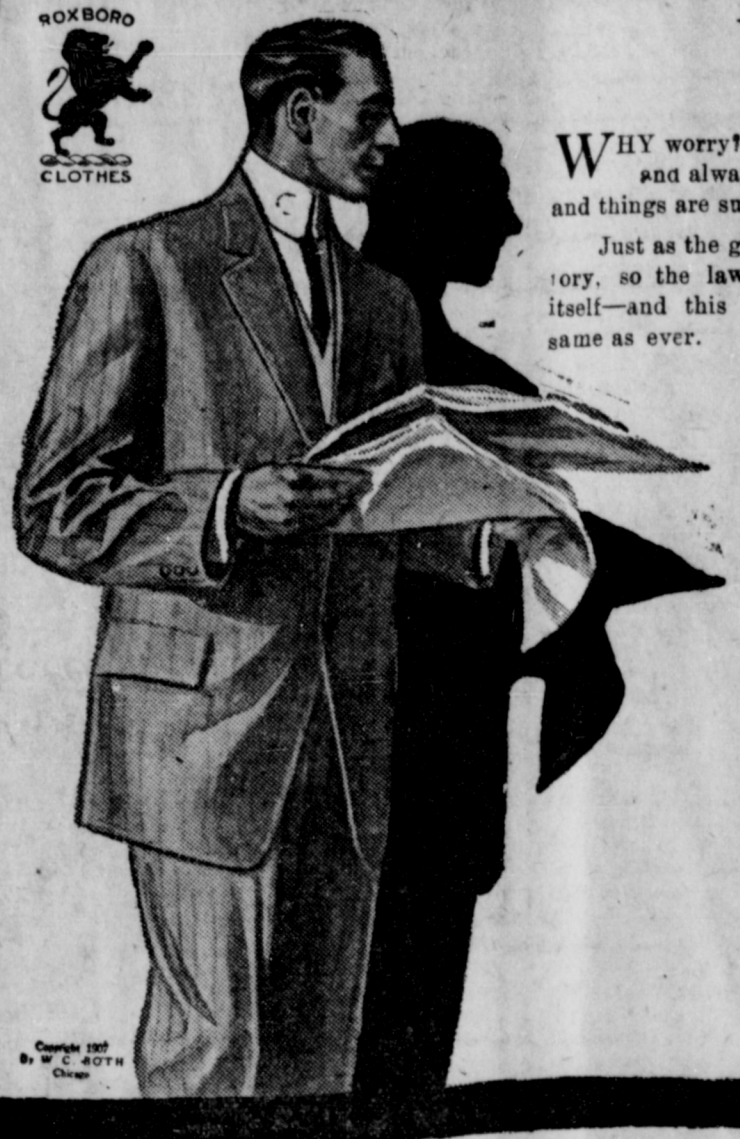

A Texas editor wants to know what would happen if everyone should be given the right to kill one person. It wouldn't work with baseball fans, as there are not enough umpires to go round.

Jack Bonner, the heavyweight who has been out of the game for a long time, is scheduled to box Mickey McDonough at Wilkesbarre within the next week or two.

MANY FATALITIES IN THE NORTHERN PINERIES

Milwaukee, Nov. 28.—The report of fatalities in the pinneries of Northern Wisconsin and upper Michigan during the open game and deer season of 1907, which closes Saturday night, is far greater than during any season for many years past. Thirty-one ninerods have lost their lives since the opening season began, while thirty-seven and possibly more have been maimed and wounded. That this record will be swelled before the close of the week is probable, as the woods are filled with hunters at the present time, and there has been without doubt many fatalities in the heart of the pine woods, far from settlements, that have not been made public.

Secretary of the Senate.

Charles Goodwin Bennett of New York, secretary of the senate, is one of the handsomest men at the capitol, even during the sessions of congress. He was a member of the house for four years, and upon being defeated for re-election was elected secretary of the senate in 1900. He swaggers about the senate chamber in nonchalant fashion and the guides are frequently appealed to by the visitors of the opposite sex to tell them who that "distinguished looking man is, that one of such youthful appearance." One day a senator was asked what Bennett did.

"Nothing," was the response. "He is an employee of the senate."—Washington Correspondence Chicago Tribune.

FREE TO FIGHT SUNDAY PLAY.

Missouri Court Denies Prohibition Writ in Kansas City Case.

Kansas City, Nov. 29.—The supreme court at Jefferson City denied the writ of prohibition filed on behalf of the theater managers, cigar dealers and others indicted for keeping open on Sunday to prevent Judge William H. Wallace from having further cognizance of these cases. Hermann Brumback, presiding judge of the circuit court, denied an application for a temporary injunction to restrain the county marshal from raiding the theaters on Sunday and dissolved the temporary restraining order that was made against the marshal by the circuit court six weeks ago.

COURT TO ACT ON JONAH STORY
Truth of Biblical Account to Figure in Massachusetts Suit.

Boston, Nov. 29.—The courts of Massachusetts may be called upon to pass on the truth of the story of Jonah and the whale. The Christian Bible college has brought suit against Rev. Gustavus A. Hoffman, of Maplewood, to enforce the payment of an endorsed note. Mr. Hoffman declined to pay the note on the ground that when he signed it he believed the college to be orthodox, but has discovered that it is not. He cites the story of Jonah, which he says the college refuses to accept, and says he will ask the courts to pass on the matter.

"The idea of his calling me extravagant!" exclaimed Mrs. Schoppen. "Well," replied her friend, "perhaps you're not as economical in your shopping as you might be?" "Nonsense! Why, I never buy a blessed thing but bargains."—Philadelphia Press.
